(c) When the pension advisory board receives evidence of a conviction under subsection (b), the pension advisory board may begin an investigation. If, after conducting an investigation, the pension advisory board decides to conduct further proceedings to determine whether forfeiture of all or part of the employee beneficiary's monthly pension amount is appropriate, the pension advisory board shall schedule a public hearing on the matter not later than sixty (60) days after the entry of judgment of conviction. The pension advisory board shall notify the employee beneficiary not later than five (5) days after the public hearing is scheduled.

(f) The pension advisory board shall consider and balance the following factors against the goals of the public pension laws in making a determination under subsection (c):

- (1) The employee beneficiary's length of service.
- (2) The extent to which the employee beneficiary's benefit has vested.
- (3) The employee beneficiary's duties.
- (4) The employee beneficiary's history of public service, including the public service covered by the pension trust and other public employment or service completed by the employee beneficiary.
- (5) The nature of the misconduct, including the following:

  - (C) Whether the misconduct was an isolated, one (1) time occurrence or a continuing event.
- (6) The relationship between the misconduct and the employee beneficiary's public service.

- (9) The availability and adequacy of other punishment or sanctions for the misconduct, including the extent to which restitution has been made or ordered.
- (10) Other personal circumstances of the employee beneficiary that bear on the justness of forfeiture.

(g) After the hearing, the pension advisory board shall state its findings of fact. If the pension advisory board, based on clear and convincing evidence, finds that forfeiture of all or a portion of the employee beneficiary's monthly pension amount is appropriate, the pension advisory board shall issue a written determination that includes the pension advisory board's findings of fact not later than thirty (30) days after the public hearing under subsection (c) and provide a copy to the employee beneficiary.

(h) If the pension advisory board determines under subsection (g) that the amount of the forfeiture of the employee beneficiary's monthly pension amount that is appropriate exceeds the sum of:

- (1) the amounts misappropriated, diverted, missing, or

2           misconduct; and

3           (2) the reasonable costs to the state and the pension advisory 4           board of the investigation and detection of the employee 5           beneficiary's misconduct;

6           the pension advisory board, as a part of the pension advisory 7           board's determination under subsection (g), shall make a finding 8           outlining in detail the reasons that the forfeiture is not 9           disproportionate to the employee beneficiary's misconduct.

10          (i) If the pension advisory board determines under subsection
11          (c) that the forfeiture of all or part of the employee beneficiary's 12          monthly pension amount is appropriate, the pension advisory 13          board shall also determine whether forfeiture of all or part of the 14          benefits to which a surviving spouse or dependent child of the 15          employee beneficiary would otherwise be entitled under this article 16          is appropriate.

17          (j) If the pension advisory board determines under subsection 18          (c) that a partial forfeiture of the employee beneficiary's monthly 19          pension amount is warranted, the pension advisory board shall 20          determine the percentage that will be applied, when the employee 21          beneficiary begins receiving a monthly pension amount, to reduce 22          the employee beneficiary's monthly pension amount calculated 23          under IC 10-12-3-7 or IC 10-12-4-7.

24          (k) In determining the amount of a forfeiture under this section, 25          the pension advisory board must reduce the amount of the 26          proposed forfeiture by the amount of any restitution made by the 27          employee beneficiary.

28          (l) An employee beneficiary for whom the pension advisory 29          board has determined that forfeiture of all or a portion of the 30          employee beneficiary's monthly pension amount is appropriate 31          may request that the pension advisory board reconsider its 32          determination by filing a written request with the pension advisory 33          board not later than fifteen (15) days after the date the pension 34          advisory board issues its determination. The written request must 35          state concisely the reasons that the employee beneficiary believes 36          that the forfeiture is erroneous. After the pension advisory board 37          receives the written request, the pension advisory board shall set 38          the matter for a hearing. At the hearing, the employee beneficiary 39          is entitled to appropriate due process protection consistent with 40          IC 4-21.5, including the right to be represented, at the employee 41          beneficiary's expense, by counsel, the right to call and examine

- 6 (2) modify its determination by reducing the amount of the 7 forfeiture; or
- 8 (3) vacate its determination that forfeiture is appropriate.

9 (m) If an employee beneficiary's conviction is reversed, vacated, 10 or set aside after the pension advisory board makes its final 11 determination under this section that forfeiture of all or a portion 12 of the employee beneficiary's monthly pension amount is 13 appropriate, the pension advisory board's determination is 14 automatically stayed, and the employee beneficiary is entitled to a 15 new hearing under this section.

16 (n) If a prosecuting attorney obtains a criminal conviction 17 against an individual whom the prosecuting attorney knows or has 18 reason to believe is an employee beneficiary of the pension trust, 19 the prosecuting attorney shall notify the pension advisory board in 20 writing of the conviction.

21 (o) An employee beneficiary for whom forfeiture of all of the 22 employee beneficiary's monthly pension benefit is determined
 23 appropriate is entitled to the return of the employee beneficiary's 24 contributions to the trust fund with interest.

25 (p) The pension advisory board's evidence relating to an 26 investigation under subsection (c) is confidential until the earlier 27 of:

- 28 (1) the time the employee beneficiary is notified of the pension 29 advisory board's public hearing under subsection (c); or
- 30 (2) the time the employee beneficiary elects to have the 31 records made public.
